Dear Saints of St. Peter's:

"You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt."
Deuteronomy 10:19

"Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it." Hebrews 13:2

Strangers, foreigners, immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers are common themes.....in the Bible. Yes, they are also common themes in our daily newsfeed as well.

On Sunday, August 17, Kathy Chatelaine, from the SE MN Synod office gave a presentation on AMMPARO, which is "a holistic, whole church commitment by the ELCA, as a church in the world, to accompany migrant families today and in the future. The word "amparo" in Spanish means the protection of a living creature from suffering or damage. The ELCA's strategy to Accompanying Migrants with Protection, Advocacy, Representation and Opportunities." (www.elca.org)

Immigration is a political issue. All nations have, and should have, policies and laws regarding immigration and citizenship. Immigration, refugees, and asylum seekers is not an issue unique to the United States.

Immigration is also a theological and humanitarian issue. We confess that all people are created in the image and likeness of God. Each of us is a beloved child of God. Jesus calls us to love our neighbors, including our enemies and strangers.

At her presentation on AMMPARO, Kathy mentioned the book, The God Who Sees: Immigrants, the Bible, and the Journey to Belong. I have ordered 10 copies so that we can discuss immigration from a faith perspective. Kathy has also developed a Facilitator discussion guide which we will use. The books will be available in the office.

We will discuss the book on 4 Sundays-September 28, October 19, November 2 & 9.

This is not an easy conversation. Immigration is complicated, confusing, and contradictory. We won't all agree and our goal will not be to get everyone to agree on everything. Listening to and seeking to understand those who think differently than us is a better goal. Our desire and hope will be to approach our conversation trusting that God is present and with us.

Peace,
Pastor David Weeks

Music Moments

MAKING MUSIC... WHO'S IN?!

I came across an article in the archives of The Atlantic, from 12/1/24, "It's Never Too Late to Learn an Instrument: You don't have to be talented for jamming to be worthwhile" by Caroline Mimbs Nyce.

Here are a few of her musings and findings.

By NOT playing an instrument (this includes your voice and singing), you might be giving up certain health benefits!

This is what making music could do for you:

1. Build larger brain networks and create new pathways.
2. Better attention skills.
3. Stress relief, reduce burnout, and help with anxiety and depression.
4. Produce potential cognitive benefits, possibly decreasing dementia risk.

Benefits also come when playing music in a GROUP (think choir, bells, bands):

1. "Allows adults to feel more trusting and connected to one another, and to the world in general."
2. Expand your skills - Anyone can learn at any age.
3. Plus: "Making music is just a whole lot of fun".

I encourage you to read the full article.

Christikon 2025

“The mountains were gorgeous, I met new friends and even someone from Albania. 'Twas fun!”
~ Anika Wierson

Arnie + Celena preparing school kit bags.

MG's organizer Phil Olson spray-painting a handicapped driver logo on the church parking lot. The MG's started repainting the faded parking lot lines and logos August 7. The project took more than one day.

Kathy Chatelaine from SEMN Synod spoke during the fellowship hour on August 17 about the ELCA's AMMPARO program.

Council Highlights

To express God's love and grace in building a community where people believe in God, belong to Christ, and become disciples who serve in day-to-day living.

Gifted Equities: Financial Administrator Terrence Hassanally proposed we invest $55,000 of the $95,000 gift to St. Peter's from Eleanor "Ellie" Salisbury. Hassanally, who is a licensed financial adviser, proposed that we invest the funds in 80 percent stock and 20 percent bond growth funds. Later in the meeting, the Council unanimously approved a motion by Eaves, seconded by Paulson, to accept Hassanally's proposal.

Devotions: Hendee read a devotion from the Kamehameha Schools in Hawaii to keep alert for the call of God, and to know that God always walks at our sides when he challenges us.

Pastor: Four youth from the congregation were part of a contingent of 29 youth and six adult chaperones (including Weeks) who hiked and camped at the ELCA's Christikon Camp near Billings, Montana July 19-27. The Rally Day start of the Sunday School year is Sept. 14. Patricia McKee, Christian life coordinator, and the Faith Formation team are recruiting volunteers. Pastor and McKee have talked about her teaching one Wednesday a month during the 2025-26 Confirmation class. Pastor said his primary goal in the classes is not confirming the congregation's youth, but to invite and encourage them to live as disciples of Jesus, which includes worship, prayer, service and Bible reading.

Council President: Kleppe outlined plans for the "How to Make Worship Happen" training Aug. 24 to encourage congregation members of all ages to learn how to usher, read worship lessons, serve communion, light altar candles, host coffee hour and other activities. The office wing's air conditioner broke down in July. A temporary repair was made. The Council re-affirmed its desire that the Sunday offering be counted weekly to ensure timely clearing of checks at banks. A few more volunteer counters will be recruited. Repairs and maintenance at Sarah's House continues to be a challenge to address. The idea of a master plan for addressing church renovations, repairs and maintenance is under discussion.

Treasurer: Link presented June and July financial reports. Year-to-date giving at the end of July was more than $12,000 under budget, which is a typical seasonal pattern. Expenditures for the same period were more than $25,000 under budget. The Change 4 Change program (loose coins and bills not linked to a member's offering envelope number) went to Northfield Habitat for Humanity in June and July. The June total was $153. Change 4 Change offerings from August and September will go to ELCA Disaster Relief in the aftermath of Texas flooding.

Committee Reports

Faith Formation: Continues to meet with Patricia McKee, Christian life coordinator, to plan for the new Sunday School year.

New Business

Tharin Leopold will speak during Fellowship House on estate planning on Oct. 26. He is a gifts officer and endowment specialist for the ELCA Foundation. After discussion, the Council approved a motion by Hanson (second by Eaves) to look into donating the church van to Good Earth Village, the synod's summer camp and retreat center near Spring Valley in southeast Minnesota. The facility has been using the van during recent summers. The vehicle is a 12-passenger 1997 Ford Econoline with 114,800 miles. The Council adopted a new "Good Samaritan" protocol for how to handle requests for financial assistance from people who show up at church. Council members are to read the foreword and first two chapters of "Holy Disruption: A Manifesto for the Future of Faith Communities" for the next meeting's devotions period.

Bells of Solidarity

A Wordless Prayer for Humanity in Gaza

Inspired by the simultaneous ringing of bells by more than 300 Norwegian churches at 3 pm August 7th this month, a group of Northfield citizens invited local churches to join in a project titled: Bells of Solidarity, a Wordless Prayer for Gaza. Church bells of Northfield, (including ours) will be simultaneously ringing for a period of time on Tuesday afternoon, September 16th, as an act of solidarity with the people of Gaza and a wordless prayer for humanity. Through a sound and visual experience, which touches our hearts, we believe a collective reckoning will be inspired. The bells of churches, in unity ringing, declare the humanitarian crisis. Stay tuned for more information – but plan to go outside that day to listen! Time is TBD and will be posted in the St. Peter's weekly emails.
